A man and a woman are suspended against a dark, vertically-slatted wall. The man is at the top, lying horizontally, holding a thick white rope. The woman is at the bottom, also lying horizontally, with her body wrapped in the same rope. She is wearing a black leather dress and high heels. The rope forms a triangular shape between them, with the man's hands at the top vertex and the woman's hands at the bottom vertex. The background is a dark, textured wall.
